25X1A2G to do [redacted]

25X1A2G 3. Inasmuch as the contract arrangement [redacted] is to go into effect the 29th of June, I believe our best course now is to hold up any further action [redacted] until we have had a chance to see how the contract arrangement [redacted] works out. I think a period of six months should enable us to determine whether this arrangement is going to be satisfactory. It is therefore requested that thirty days after the end of the six-months period a report be submitted to me on the advisability of establishing a similar arrangement [redacted]
